November 15 Stewardship Reflection
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings challenge us to live not for the "here and now," but rather with eternity in mind. We are reminded that we will be called one day to give an account for the gifts God has given us - our physical, intellectual and material gifts - as well as the gift of time itself. We must examine our lives to determine whether we are making the best use of our gifts with the time we have been given to use them.

St. Paul gives us a wonderful lens through which to do this type of self-examination, in our Second Reading from 1 Thessalonians. He reminds us of our true identity as disciples of Christ. "All of you are... children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober." We are to live in a way that is counter to the prevailing wisdom, living not for ourselves and for the pleasure of immediate gratification, but rather to advance the Kingdom of Heaven.

Let us embrace the stewardship way of life, using all the gifts entrusted to us - time, talent and treasure - in such a way that at the end of our life on this earth, we will hear these words from our Father: "Well done, my good and faithful servant... Come, share your mater's joy."

Pray for the Sick

Please remember the intentions of those in the hospitals and those recuperating at home: Shirley Kasecky, Georgina Olsavsky, Sally Warynovich, Mary Ann Topor, Francis Parana, Deb Hines, Simone Setz, and Lucia Aguilar. Pray for all those who are sick, including all those in nursing facilities.

Sanctuary Lamp

This week the Sanctuary Lamp will burn in memory of Patricia Millward, requested by Family.

In Remembrance

We extend our sympathies to Morine Long on the death of Shawn Campaniello, to Ernie and Elaine Sekerak and Ernie and Kristin Sekerak on the death of Marvin Mearnic, and to Shirley Kasecky and family on the death of James Mackanick. May God grant them eternal happiness and comfort their loved ones during this time of sorrow and sadness.
