November 8 Stewardship Reflection
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom is a central theme in our readings today. It is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, and it is key to living a stewardship way of life in our complex world. As Christian stewards, we should rely on this gift and ask the Holy Spirit to increase it within us.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus tells the parable of 10 virgins awaiting the arrival of the bridegroom who will welcome them into the wedding feast. Five of the virgins were foolish and five were wise. The foolish virgins failed to bring oil along with their lamps when they went to meet the bridegroom. The wise ones, however, had prepared and brought sufficient oil to keep their lamps lit when the bridegroom came. The foolish virgins, caught off guard, ran off to buy more oil, but they were too late. The door to the wedding feast was locked to them. Jesus cautions, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The stewardship way of life - with its daily and weekly commitments to giving God the best of our time, talent and treasure - is the "oil" that we always keep with us. When we have this plan in place and we rely deeply on the Holy Spirit to guide us through the twists and turns of each day, we are free, we are ready to answer the Bridegroom when He calls us. We live in wisdom.

Pray for the Sick

Please remember the intentions of those in the hospitals and those recuperating at home: Mary Ann Topor, Francis Parana, Deb Hines, Simone Setz, and Lucia Aguilar. Pray for all those who are sick, including all those in nursing facilities.

Sanctuary Lamp

This week the Sanctuary Lamp will burn for good health and safe journeys for my family and loved ones, requested by Susan Nazarak.

In Rembrance

In your prayers please remember from our parish Louise Kachik and Margaret Martin. We extend our sympathies to the Kachik Family and to Gregory and Lana Mason and Family. We also extend our sympathies to Rose Leonard, Renee and John Kuzmiak, Eric Kuzmiak, and family, and Maria Nealen and family on the death of Janine Leonard Scurfield, and also to Stefan and Cindy Molinick on the death of Robert (Hobe) Schirato. May God grant them eternal happiness and comfort their loved ones during this time of sorrow and sadness.
